

Within the Walls of Home

IN THE realm of special privilege—that is within the four walls of home—all sorts of negligees blossom out as varied and unlike each other as flowers in a garden. Here splendor-loving women can go as far as they like, drawing inspiration from all quarters of the earth and of other lands; and this is what they do. If anything odd or beautiful happens to be overlooked by them, some kind genius among costumers is sure to bring the neglected treasure to their notice in an alluring form, to his gain and theirs.

Considering everything the two negligees shown in the picture above are quite unpretentious. One of them in rose and blue georgette is a lovely and fragile looking affair in which old blue in a soft shade is posed over rose color, the blue overgarment showing a wide embroidered border at the bottom and narrow embroidered bands on the bodice. The underslip provides the brief kimono sleeves, and narrow satin ribbon the loose, long girdle weighted with beads and ornaments at the ends.

CAL. JAPANESE WILL STAY HERE

(By Associated Press)
TOKIO, March 19.—Japanese people in California are not preparing to return to Japan, but will stay in the land of their adoption and assimilate with the nationals among whom they live, according to the statement of Chairman Manabe of the Loomis Industrial association of Los Angeles, California.

Quoted in the Japanese Times and Mail, Mr. Manabe said: "The stringent land law has also impressed on the Japanese the value of owning, rather than leasing land. They are buying land for their children and instead of becoming guardians themselves, they are appointed bona fide Americans to act for their offspring and look after their interests. "These children born under the Stars and Stripes cannot enjoy the same privileges that are accorded to them as American citizens if they return to Japan. Moreover, they are receiving an American education and are growing up in an American environment which will unfit them even to enter schools in Japan. They will find themselves as much strangers in Japan as their parents did when they first landed in America. Therefore, parents are all agreed in the wisdom of bringing up their children as American citizens and as such they may own any amount of land. I believe this is the right way."

STUDENTS STRIKE AT HIGH BOOK PRICES

(By Associated Press)
NAPLES, March 19.—The students of Naples university have gone out on a strike in protest against the ever-rising price of scientific textbooks. Marching around the city to the bookshops they presented a demand that each publisher should grant an all-round 50 per cent reduction. Those who refused had their stores raided and their stock torn to pieces or pitched into the streets from balconies.

It develops that Postmaster General Burleson has no government automobile, but that didn't matter much for a man as slow as he was would not have known what to do with one.
